KEY MESSAGE | 50 YEAR ANNIVERSARY

Bundespräsident
Alexander Van der Bellen

A. Van der Bellen

Dear Editors,
Dear Ladies and Gentlemen,
Dear Readers,

I am pleased to take this opportunity to offer you my sincere congratulations on the occasion of a very special anniversary. CD – Cercle Diplomatique, Economique et Touristique International turns 50!

In 1971, founder Karl Schmidt, together with his wife Elisabeth, mustered the entrepreneurial courage to launch a new magazine. He must have known that the magazine was to have a mission in its own right when he wrote the following in the first issue: “The fact that we primarily cater to a diplomatic audience does not mean that we are foregoing a broader forum of readers. Rather, we want to give everyone the opportunity to have their say insofar as they have a genuine desire to improve the understanding between nations.”

And where could this have taken place better than in Vienna, which had already been the setting for the Congress of Vienna and continues to contribute to better global understanding as an important seat of international diplomacy, various international organisations and the only representation of the UN within the EU.

And indeed – Cercle Diplomatique has become a success story. The Schmidt couple continued to lead the magazine jointly with their children until 1995, after which it was headed by Waltraud Steinböck for the next two decades. In 2015, Andrea Fürnweger and Alexander Bursky took over and, after a successful relaunch, positioned it as a media interface linking diplomacy, politics, business and culture.

Through its journalism, CD connects the world with Austria and vice versa, which is a welcome contribution to international understanding, especially in a country that has always been very export-oriented, plays a neutral role as a bridge-builder and mediator and has one of the world’s most important bases for international organisations in Vienna.

I therefore wish the magazine all the best for its half-century anniversary, as well as for the years to come, and continued reading pleasure for you!

KEY MESSAGE | READERS

Heinz Fischer

Former Austrian Federal President

I wish this very special edition of Cercle Diplomatique many interested readers.

Johanna Mikl-Leitner
